Call for Entry

Designed by Hideki Inaba

SHIFT is calling for entries for the DOTMOV FESTIVAL 2015 until June 20th, 2015.

Online magazine SHIFT presents DOTMOV Festival 2015 aiming to discover talented creators and provide them with an opportunity to show their works. Works submitted from all over the world will be screened throughout the world venues from September 2015 (screening schedule will be different depending on the venue). Last year's total submission was 225 works from 15 countries. The tour schedule will be announced on this page.

In addition to the general category, this year we are also calling for entries to the "SenSe V.A 04" MV category in collaboration with the fourth album of "SenSe V.A" series by Sapporo-based artists, which is to be released on March 1st 2015 by the label SenSe. SenSe is the Sapporo based label which introduces creatives such as music and art.

DOTMOV2015

Festival mission:

The goal of this festival is to discover talented artists and provide them with an opportunity to show their work. We are also trying to increase the international scope of the festival by inviting guest creators, active on the front lines of the creative world, to participate as judges. During the festival, holding a lot of related audio & visual events, we explore the possibility of digital films.

Theme:

General Category: Choose your favourite theme and create a work with it.

“SenSe V.A 04” MV Category: We are calling for music video works for sounds from “SenSe V.A 04”, which is a album by Sapporo-based artists which to be released on March 1st 2015 by the label “SenSe”. Everybody is encouraged to join. The required length is at least 30 seconds. Please download sounds from here (After “SenSe V.A 04” is released). (You can submit as many pieces as desired.)

Date and Place:

Online: All selected works will be shown on SHIFT website. (from September 1st, 2015)

Place: The screenings will be in major cities in Japan and the world. (15 venues in 11 cities last year.) *Further details will be announced later.
